

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

A classic lantern silhouette is refined through a layered, two-tone composition that feels both timeless and current. An outer framework of Natural Aged Brass gracefully arches around an inner Matte Black cage, creating depth, contrast, and architectural presence. Clear glass panels showcase the warm glow of candelabra lamps within, while streamlined proportions soften the form for transitional interiors. Equally at home in traditional, modern farmhouse, or updated classic settings, the collection brings stately elegance with a lighter, more tailored perspective.
